Marshall's Answers to Nimrods Q. Which states are the best for trapshooting? Have you any way of "Good Lord!" estimating the number of targets run, Farrelly!" thrown in the United States? Frank "On the run

Murdock, Scranton, Pa.

A. There is no way of estimating, without consulting the books of the target manufacturers, except on targets thrown at registered tournaments as reported by the American Trapshooting association—oracle for all trapshooting data. There was a sum total of 7,851,478 targets thrown in registered competition last year, the greatest number thrown in any year since data has been compiled.

A. There is no way of estimating, it is used of Sinn Fein leaders and officers of the Irish republican army who have to leave their houses and go into hiding to avoid arrest.

Q. What is your position on the "five year closed season on quait?"
We are against it in this locality. Am a reader of your articles every week. We want your opinion. Springfield, "HOLIDAY NEEDED"

A. I am against protection of this character. The law has failed to ac-complish results in states where it confided to me that few tourists vis-ited his bank with such a bundle of pated. If a law could be passed in-One day at corporating sportsmen, vermin, pred- ployer; actory animals, cold winters and deep snow, I would be heartily in accord.
The cold weather and deep snow elements must be considered or the enments must be considered or the en-actment would be worthless.
